

Breaking News: Evusheld Dosing Revisions

Evusheld is a COVID-19 prophylactic intended for people who have a severe allergy to the vaccine or for those who do not mount an adequate immune response to the vaccine. Data suggest that 300mg each of tizagevimab and cilgavimab are protective against SARS-COV-2 Omicron subvariants for a period of six months then dosing should be repeated.

Read the FDA Update

COVID-19 Hot Topics

Therapeutics & Boosters

- Evusheld to Prevent COVID-19 in People with MS
- COVID-19 Prophylactics and Therapeutics Locator
- One-Stop Locations for COVID-19 Testing and Treatment
- COVID-19 Vaccine Schedules and Boosters \(by age and immunocompromised status\)

Our guidance on COVID-19 and MS is frequently updated and available en español.

Stay Up to Date

ECHO MS

ECHO MS is a free 12 CME virtual knowledge-sharing network from Sept. 2022 – March 2023 for general neurologists and MS specialists to discuss patient cases and gain new skills in the diagnosis and management of MS. ECHO MS connects participants to MS experts in four hub sites: University of Washington, Washington University in St. Louis, Duke University, and University of Colorado (new this year).

To learn more visit www.nationalmssociety.org/ECHOMS or email echo.ms@nmss.org.

The Annual Meeting of the Consortium of MS Centers

THE CONSORTIUM OF
MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS CENTERS

The 36th Annual Meeting of the Consortium of MS Centers was recently held in National Harbor, MD where presentations were given on up to date MS clinical approaches and research. The National MS Society held a breakfast for healthcare providers, hosted the CMSC Symposium ‘Advancing Advocacy in MS: Access to Affordable, High-Quality Care and Treatments’ and displayed abstract posters highlighting our work.

Learn More

The Economic Burden of MS study

A new study commissioned by the National MS Society ‘The Economic Burden of Multiple Sclerosis in the U.S.: Estimate of Direct and Indirect Costs’ confirmed the high cost of MS. The study found the average total cost of living associated with MS is $88,487 per year for people living with MS, and the total estimated cost to the U.S. economy is $85.4 billion per year. Watch our webinar for healthcare providers.

Read the Summary

MS Clinical Care Fellowships - Individual & Institutional Awards

Pre-Applications Close Aug. 10 and Full Applications Close Aug. 17

The National Multiple Sclerosis Society funds MS clinical care fellowships to train physicians in comprehensive MS care. The MS Clinical Care Physician Fellowship grants are one-year, post-residency individual awards and the Institutional Clinician Training Awards are five-year awards to support mentors and institutions training MS fellows.

Learn More

Not the right opportunity for you? View the Society's portfolio of training grants & fellowships.

Professional Education Opportunities

Brown Bag Lunch Symptom Management Series

July 2022 - March 2023, second Thursday of each month, 12 p.m. CT

The National MS Society's Upper Midwest Healthcare Provider Council invites you to join us in a virtual networking and discussion series covering MS symptom management. Topics include cognition and mental health, sexual health, bowel and bladder and more.

Learn More

Health Equity in Multiple Sclerosis Training

The National MS Society has vetted a curated collection of CME programs for healthcare professionals that highlight health equity strategy implementation, further describe unmet needs in MS and provide a scoping review of health equity.

View the Training

2022 Current Topics in MS

This FREE quarterly CME/CE webinar series is designed to meet the educational needs of physicians, nursing professionals, physician assistants, mental health professionals and other members of the healthcare team who support patients with MS.

Bladder Dysfunction in MS

Monday, Sept. 12, 4 p.m. ET
Rebecca Lavelle, MD

Register Here

Pediatric MS Difficult Case Webinars

Aug. 1, 12 p.m. ET

Sept. 2, 4 p.m. ET

Oct. 3, 12 p.m. ET

Monthly webinar to review pediatric MS or other suspected demyelinating disease cases.

Email Us

Pathways to Cures | Read Our Blog | In Your Area | COVID-19

National
Multiple Sclerosis
Society

DONATE NOW

National MS Society | Legal Notice/Privacy Policy | Email Preferences | Unsubscribe

National Multiple Sclerosis Society | 733 Third Avenue, New York, NY 10017 United States

Contact us at nationalMSSociety.org or 1-800-344-4867

This message was sent to hope.nearhood@nmss.org. To ensure that you continue to receive our emails, please add us to your address book.