

Thank you for completing the necessary MS Ambassador training sessions and registering. You are now an active MS Ambassador for the National MS Society! Now more than ever, you are helping the Society increase reach, build awareness, expand organizational capacity and accelerate progress. This resource includes important information to help you get started and/or continue your engagement.

MS Ambassador Toolkit

The toolkit is a homebase full of tools and resources you can continue to rely on for support and up-to-date information. Each of you can access this toolkit easily and whenever you need to. We frequently add new resources and support to this page, so we encourage you to check back frequently.

Tools to get you started:

- Best Practices
- Ways to Engage
- Communication Tools

A bookmark to the toolkit may be useful for future reference. If necessary, learn how to bookmark.

MS Ambassador Team

You are welcome to reach out to us anytime. We want to hear all the different ways you are impacting and engaging your communities and look for continued feedback on MS Ambassador opportunities, so please stay in touch with us!

FAQs (coming soon)

We are hoping to create FAQs to assist you in this work. If any major questions come up as you dive deeper into the MS Ambassador work, tools and resources, please email the MS Ambassador Team.

Remember, we know that MS Ambassadors come into this work at different levels of involvement and experience with the Society. Some of you are brand new to the organization while others have been engaged in a variety of roles. No matter how you are involved with the Society, we hope the training, tools and resources empower you to go into your community as a representative of the Society to raise awareness so people with MS can live their best lives.
