Peer Connections Volunteer: Self-Help Group Leader

Overview:
Self-Help Group Leaders provide in-person and/or virtual connection within community groups that provide emotional support, education, and peer connections. Group Leaders implement and guide peer led solution focused emotional support within their group setting while also providing organizational and logistical aspects of group facilitation and management.

The National MS Society is committed to embedding diversity, equity, and inclusion in everything we do. We strive to create communities and connection opportunities where everyone feels empowered to bring their authentic selves so we can foster a sense of authenticity and belonging.

Staff Contact:
Peer Connections Resource Team (PeerConnections@nmss.org) and assigned Staff Partner (TBD).

Key Responsibilities:
- Serve as a positive representative of and liaison to the Society within the community.
- Provide an authentically safe and inclusive space that aligns with the Society’s Diversity, Equity & Inclusion principles, where participants can share their common lived experience.
- Adherence, at all times, to the Society’s Inclusion Policy.
- Adherence to all Society policies & guidelines provided on the Resources for Peer Connections Volunteer website.
- Ensure that group meets in accessible and appropriate meeting space; determine meeting schedule; and communicate with group members in between scheduled meetings.
- Together, with group members, plan and implement meeting agendas, welcome new members, encourage participation and facilitate group discussions.
- Communicate regularly with Staff Partner and Peer Connections Resource Team consistently and respectfully.
- Work with Staff Partner annually to complete volunteer compliance requirements.
